Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

The $20 bill sent by President Cleveland to Charleston is a touching reminder of the widow's mite.

MAYOR HARRISON'S strength as a politician won't last long if all the Chicago Anarchists are to be hanged.

MR. RAFFERTY has 2,500 majority to start with in his pocket borough. He will have less to wind up with.

OUR county Sunday school workers turned out in force yesterday and put the good cause on a new and better footing.

WHEELING is reaping the benefit of the Intelligencer's Special Natural Gas Industrial Edition, and it serves her right. It is in the observance.

PENNSYLVANIA Republicans are trying to do away with the confederate system, which would be "more honored in the breach than in the observance."

WHY MAKERS are combining to keep prices from going to the bad. Each member of the combination is expected to jump at the crack of the lash.

THESE artists who are doing what they can to make labor troubles part of the daily diet in Wheeling are not doing much to build up the city. There are some things that frighten capital.

SUPREMACY Counts in these days are doing some good work. In New York Judge told that he must do his time in the penitentiary. In Chicago the condemned Anarchists are told that they must go.

THE Richmond newspapers think it awfully funny for black men and white men to sleep in the same rooms. If the cover were lifted off Richmond might be depended on to reveal more striking sights than that.

MR. HEND AND MR. ROMERO are to fight it out again in the Toledo district. Hard is the program to be dodged the tariff issue, but Romero knows how he caught Hard before, and he is going to fish with the same bait this time.

PRIVATE SECRETARY LAMONT, Secretary Manning and Collector Magone, being neither offensive nor obtrusive partisans, can do all the fixing up they please. It is very handy to have a few friends of this kind about a political household.

HIS HIGH NOBLENESS the Earl of Londale likes to remark: "I feel myself in the most unfortunate and embarrassing position through my husband's malignancy." That husband of "Miss" Violet Cameron must indeed be a bad man. It is surprising that Londale has so long put up with Er-eh-Whit-oh-His-Name.

THE Democratic conferees of the First Senatorial District have given the public surprise and their party a strong nomination. Mr. Pendleton is a popular young man, a good lawyer, a public speaker who draws well and holds his audience, and a very industrious worker. It will not be an easy thing to defeat him, but we think we could name a man who can do it.

AT LAST it has been discovered what is the matter with the Philadelphia post-office under Mr. Randall's young man Harry. The few Republicans remaining in the office have conspired with other wicked Republicans on the outside to throw the business of the office into the almost hopeless confusion which has aroused the people of Philadelphia. It is to be hoped that those Republicans may be caught before they leave town.

ALL kind of stories are afloat concerning Monsignor Capel, who came to this country well recommended, his fame having preceded him. As a distinguished prelate of a great church he was cordially received, as well by liberal Protestants as by members of his own communion. The allegations now made against his character are briefly summed up in a fondness for men and women. There ought to be a fair investigation of the charges, so that if the man is innocent his defenders may be brought to judgement, and if he is guilty his church may rid herself of him.

A COMBINATION Formed by Governor Hill and Col. Lamont in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Times to-day says: If the agreement entered into last evening between representatives of the County Democracy and Tammany Hall is ratified by the county conventions of these factions, and it undoubtedly will be, there will be a union local Democratic ticket this fall from the Majority down. The choice of the candidate for Mayor was narrowed down to ex-Mayor Edward Cooper, Controller Edward V. Low and George W. Quintard, of the Quinlan Iron Works. Negotiations for the union were carried on between representatives of both organizations through the medium of Governor David B. Hill, more or less representing the interests of Tammany Hall, and Col. Daniel S. Lamont, of Washington.

By the agreement entered into by the County Democracy is to be allowed to select the candidate for Mayor, to run a union Democratic ticket, from the names of the Quinlan Iron Works, and is to be permitted to name the candidate for the Superior Court. Tammany Hall is to ratify the choice of the County Democracy for Mayor and for one or other for the Judgeships, and in return the County Democracy Convention is to endorse Tammany for the remaining Judgeship and for the Legislature. A union is also to be had in most if not all of the Congressional and Assembly districts on candidates for Congress, the Assembly and the Board of Aldermen.

Secretary Manning is also in the city. Col. Lamont is credited with having done an exceedingly hard day's work yesterday. In the afternoon he sat on ex-Mayor Cooper, Mr. Low and Mr. Quintard, and also visited Mr. Manning and Governor Hill. Collector Magone called at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in the afternoon and saw Mr. Lamont and presumably Mr. Manning. Besides this, Mr. Lamont is incidentally several mighty men in local politics.

OF THE SEVEN ANARCHISTS.

The Silly Language of Spies, Schwab and Others.

NEBBE'S PLAINTIVE PLEA To be Sacrificed with the Other Dastardly Villains.

COMPARATIVE PROFANATION. Anarchist Fischer Creates a Sensation Among His Counsel.

"LOGIC" OF THE PLEADERS.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7.—At 9 o'clock this morning a few police paced back and forth in front of the Criminal Court building. "This it sentence day," said many on the streets as they hastened toward the spot in the hopes of entering the presence of Judge Gary, and witnessing the expected sensational scenes. But only one in ten could get by the guards at the outer door, and by 10 o'clock the disappointed ones formed quite an assembly on the corner and in front of the Court House building. Inside the court room the yellow curtains were drawn and the brightness of the "outer day" shed a somber light on the assembly.

At about 10 o'clock the prisoners were in their seats. They were not stolid and indifferent as so often before. A change had come over some of them, and they all exhibited evidences of great unconcern.

JUDGE GARY'S DECISION. Judge Gary, in delivering his decision, reviewed at considerable length the evidence brought out at the trial, and said concerning the instructions to which exceptions were taken by the defense: "On the question of instructions, whether the defendants or any of them did anticipate or expect the throwing of the bomb, on the basis of the testimony, it is not a question which I need to consider because instructions did not go upon that ground."

The jury was instructed to find them guilty if they believed that they participated in the throwing of the bomb, or encouraged or advised the throwing of that bomb, or had knowledge that it was to be thrown, or anything of that sort. The conviction was not given upon the ground that they had any actual participation in the act which caused the death of officer Deagan, but upon the ground that the instructions that they had generally by speech and print advised a large class to commit murder, and had left the occasion, time and place to the individual will, and in the case of the individuals as charged, and that in consequence of that advice and in pursuance of it, and induced by it, somebody not known did throw the bomb that caused Deagan's death.

THE ORATORS' GUILTY. Now under these circumstances, in the inflated state of the public mind at the time, each of the orators at the Haymarket was still more inflaming the public mind when he advised the public to use force, and some man—I do not say identified; say unidentified—some man in that crowd, when the police were firing, threw the bomb which caused the death of officer Deagan. The case, as I said before, is unprecedented. There is no example of any such crime having been committed. There is no precedent of any case like this having become the subject of judicial investigation, but the principle of law is not affected.

The court then passed to the objections urged against the form of sentence and quoted from the One Hundred and Ninth Illinois on the point, and said there was nothing in the circumstances of this case any more than in any other case of irregularity of proceeding than was done in this case. The motion must be overruled.

ADDRESS TO THE PRISONERS. The Court then addressed the prisoners as follows: "Prisoners at the bar. For the first time during this painful and protracted proceeding, it is my duty to speak to you and tell you the result of the trial. I am separately now to say whether you have anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon you according to the verdict of the jury. I will first call upon Mr. Nebbe."

The defendant Spies at once addressed the court with manuscript in hand. He said: "Your Honor, in addressing this court, I speak as the representative of one class addressing the representative of another. I will begin with the words addressed, years ago, on a similar motion by the Venetian Doge, who, addressing the court, said: 'My defense is your accusation, the cases of my alleged crime is your history.' I am a murderer, as an accomplice or accessory. Upon this indictment I have been convicted. There was no evidence produced by the State to show or even indicate that I had any knowledge of the man who threw the bomb, or that I had any hand in anything to do with it. Not the slightest evidence was ever produced to show that I had anything to do with the throwing of the bomb, unless you believe the testimony of the accomplices of the State's Attorney and Bonded testimony of Thompson and Glimmer. If there was no evidence to show that I was responsible for it then my execution and the execution of the verdict is nothing but a willful, malicious and deliberate murder, as foul a murder as may be found in the annals of religious, political, or any other sort of prosecution. Judicial murders have in many cases been committed where the representatives of the State were sitting in good faith, believing they were guilty of the charge they were accused."

THE OLD CHERRY. In this case the representatives of the State cannot shield themselves with similar excuse, for they themselves have fabricated most of the testimony which was used as a pretense to convict us. We were convicted by a jury packed to convict us. I charge the State's Attorney and Bonded testimony of Thompson and Glimmer with a heinous conspiracy to commit murder. I will now state a little incident which may throw some light on this: Upon the evening of the Haymarket meeting, about 5 o'clock, I met a young man, Kleckner by name. My brother was with me at the time and never left me on that evening until I jumped from the wagon a few seconds before the explosion occurred. He knew I had not seen Schwab on that evening and he knew that no such conversation took place between us as testified to by Thompson. He knew I never struck a match and ignited the fuse in the bomb. He is not a Socialist. Why did he not bring him here and put him on the stand you ask? Because the honorable representatives of Grinnell and Bonded testified him away. They knew his testimony would prove the perjury of Thompson and Glimmer, words, words, words.

I have been a resident of this city for as long a time as the State's Attorney Grinnell, and as good a one. I know I should not like to be compared to him.
